[C]We were Hendrix and Joplin, [G]Beatles and the Moody [C]Blues
[C]Tie Dyed and high. [G]Surprised that Elvis was [C]too
We saw [F]John F and Bobby and [G]Martin die too [C]soon
We took [F]one big step when Armstrong danced on the [G]moon

We were baby [C]boomers. We [G]survived all those yester[C]days
[G]Baby [C]boomers, [F]red white and blue and [C]grey

[C]We watched Andy and Barney. [G]Some of us remember Gun[C]smoke
[C]Before all those channels [G]we were Dad's remote con[C]trol
Archie [F]Bunker came along. Made us [G]think while he made us [C]laugh
Late night [F]TV's not the same since Carson [G]passed

We were baby [C]boomers. We [G]lived all those yester[C]days
[G]Baby [C]boomers, [F]red white and blue and [C]grey

[C]Some went to Canada. [G]Some of us just stayed [C]home
[C]Some got married. [G]Some had their numbers [C]called
Some [F]came back. [G]Some gave it [C]all
Got their [F]names etched on a black granite [G]wall

We were baby [C]boomers. We [G]remember all those yester[C]days
[G]Baby [C]boomers, [F]red white and blue and [C]grey

[C]Watergate, civil rights. [G]Ali Fraiser those were fights
[C]Berlin Wall, burning bras. [G]Some were doves some were hawks
[C]Boob tubes, birth control. [G]Namath won the Super Bowl

We were baby [C]boomers. We [G]lived all those yester[C]days
[G]Baby [C]boomers, [F]red white and blue and [C]grey

We were baby [C]boomers. [G]We're still here to[C]day
[G]Baby [C]boomers, [F]red white and blue and [C]grey
