[G]As I went home on Monday night,[C] as drunk as drunk could be [G]I saw a horse out[D]side the door, where my own horse should be [G]So I call the wife and I says [C]to her "Would you kindly tell to me:
[G]Who owns that horse out[D]side the door, [G]where my own horse should be?"
Ah! [G]You're drunk, you're drunk. You silly old [C]fool. Still you cannot see
[G]That's a lovely sow [D]that me mother sent to me
[G]Well many a days [C] I traveled a hundred miles or more
[G]But I sow with a [D]saddle on, [G] I never seen before

[G]And as I went home on Tuesday night [C]as drunk as drunk could be [G] saw a coat be[D]hind the door where my old coat should be
[G]Well, I called me wife and I says [C]to her: Will you kindly tell to me
[G]Who owns that coat be[D]hind the door [G]where my old coat should be
Ah, [G] you're drunk, you're drunk you silly old [C]fool, still you can not see
[G]That's a woolen blanket [D]that me mother sent to me
[G]Well, it's many a days [C] I travelled a hundred miles or more
[G]But buttons in a [D]blanket sure [G] I never saw before

[G]And as I went home on Wednesday night [C]as drunk as drunk could be [G]I saw a pipe up [D]on the chair where my old pipe should be
[G]Well, I called me wife and I says [C]to her: Will you kindly tell to me
[G]Who owns that pipe up [D]on the chair [G]where my old pipe should be
Ah, [G] you're drunk, you're drunk you silly old [C]fool, still you can not see.
[G]That's a lovely tin whistle [D]that me mother sent to me
[G]Well, it's many a days [C] I travelled a hundred miles or more
[G]But tobacco in a [D]tin whistle sure [G] I never saw before

[G]And as I went home on Thursday night [C]as drunk as drunk could be [G]I saw two boots be[D]neath the bed where my old boots should be
[G]Well, I called me wife and I says [C]to her: Will you kindly tell to me
[G]Who owns them boots be[D]neath the bed [G]where my old boots should be
Ah, [G] you're drunk, you're drunk you silly old [C]fool, still you can not see
[G]They're two lovely Geranium [D]pots me mother sent to me
[G]Well, it's many a days [C] I travelled a hundred miles or more
[G]But laces in [D]Geranium pots [G] I never saw before

Seven Drunken Nights Page 2

[G]And as I went home on Friday night as drunk [C]as drunk could be [G]I saw a head up[D]on the bed where my old head should be
[G]Well, I called me wife and I says [C]to her: Will you kindly tell to me
[G]Who owns that head up[D]on the bed [G]where my old head should be
Ah, [G] you're drunk, you're drunk you silly old [C]fool, still you can not see
[G]That's a baby boy [D]that me mother sent to me
[G]Well, it's many a days [C] I travelled a hundred miles or more
[G]But a baby boy [D]with his whiskers on sure [G] I never saw before

[G]And as I went home on Saturday night [C]as drunk as drunk could be [G]I saw two hands up[D]on her breasts where my old hands should be
[G]Well, I called me wife and I says [C]to her: Will you kindly tell to me
[G]Who owns them hands up[D]on your breasts [G]where my old hands should be
Ah, [G] you're drunk, you're drunk you silly old [C]fool, still you can not see
[G]That's a lovely night gown [D]that me mother sent to me
[G]Well, it's many a days [C] I travelled a hundred miles or more
[G]But fingers in a [D]night gown sure [G] I never saw before

[G]As I went home on Sunday night as drunk [C]as drunk could be [G]I saw a thing in [D]her thing where my old thing should be
[G]Well, I called me wife and I says [C]to her: Will you kindly tell to me
[G]Who owns that thing in [D]your thing where my old thing should be
Ah, [G] you're drunk, you're drunk you silly old [C]fool, still you can not see
[G]That's a lovely tin whistle [D]that me mother sent to me
[G]Well, it's many a days [C] I travelled a hundred miles or more
[G]But hair on a [D]tin whistle sure [G] I never saw before
