I can [G]see you got your eye on this ol' cowboy,
I can tell you've never had one for your [C]own.
Well, you've never been around one now you're [G]thinkin' that you [E]found one, and it [A]might be kinda' fun to take him [D7]home.

You [G]giggle every time that I say, "Yes, ma'am", and I get this feelin', if I held you [C]tight,
you'd be seein' his and her's, [G]Buckles, boots, and [E]spurs
but that's a [A]feelin' you'd get [D]over over[G]night

Chorus

*'Cause [C]what you gonna' do with a [G]cowboy, [C]when that ol' rooster crows at [G]dawn ?
When he's [C]lyin' there instead of [G]getting' out of [E]bed,
and [A]puttin' on his boots and getting' [D]gone.
And [C]what you gonna do when he says, [G]"Honey.
[C]"I got half a mind to [G]stay."
[C]What you gonna do with a [G]cow[E]boy,
when [A]he don't saddle [D]up and ride a[G]way.*

Well, you can [G]see it takes a special kinda woman to put up with the life a cowboy [C]leads,
'cause his boots are always muddy,
and his [G]beer drinkin' [E]buddies, they'll [A]camp out on your couch and never [D7]leave

Don't [G]even start to think you're gonna change him, you'd be better off tryin' to rope the [C]wind.
'Cause what he is, is what you've got,
and he [G]can't be what he's [E]not,
and [A]honey, you can't [D]hide him from your [G]friends.

(Chorus)

*[C]What you gonna do with a [G]cow[E]boy,
when [A]he don't saddle [D]up and ride a[G]way.*
