

Whoop-i-ti-yi-yo – John C Reilly

[C]Well, I'm just an old cowboy with [G]twigs in my [C]hair
Two-[G]thirds alligator and [C]three-quarters bear
And [G]one half a lion but [C]let it be known
I [G7]never told one lie that [C]was not my own

Whoop-i-[G]ti-yi-yo, git along [C]little doggy

[C]I'll eat when I'm hungry, I'll [G]drink when I'm [C]dry
Don't [G]boss me or cross me or I'll [C]spit in your eye
I [G]think what I please and I [C]say what I mean
And I [G7]think all you women are the [C]finest I've seen

Whoop-i-[G]ti-yi-yo, git along [C]little doggy

[C]I love the prairie, [G]say what you [C]will It's [G]flat and it's dusty but [C]I love it still
It's [G]empty and lonely and [C]tedious too
So [G7]maybe I'm crazy but [C]what can I do

Whoop-i-[G]ti-yi-yo, git along [C]little doggy

[C]I guess you can tell by the [G]way we are [C]dressed
That [G]we're two cowboys of [C]the wild west
[G]Cowboy's who's boots have stepped [C]into manure
[G7]Heroes of song and of [C]literature
[C]We ride in the snow and we [G]ride in the [C]rain
[G]Just like Gene Autry, [C]just like John Wayne
[G]They were better cowboys than [C]us and I mean it
But [G7]we are still living and [C]that is convenient

Whoop-i-[G]ti-yi-yo, git along [C]little doggy

Whoop-i-[G]ti-yi-yo, git along [C]little doggy

[C]Yoo-ah-lay-lee, [G]yoo-ah-lay-lee, [G7]a-whooooo
Wha, [C]hooooo
